

To a poor child, education is the doorway to a world teeming with possibilities. Education and health play a pivotal role in the cycle of poverty. That is why all Children must be given equal opportunity for a better Education and Health notwithstanding where they come from or where they live. The future of every child is based on a sound Education, Health, Peace, Dignity, and above all poverty-free. For any child to attain his or her dreams the above factors must be achieved. This is why ACYDC tends to support the efforts of "Sponsored Children / Youths around the world especially in Africa. This will be accomplished through the generosity of our contributors by providing programs that meet basic needs to enhance their self-esteem and raise their physical and Educational levels in a meaningful and lasting way.
